

Our aim is to propagate Islam and to provide the Muslim community in and around Invercargill with a range of social, cultural, economic, training and educational activities.

We also aim to develop a greater self-confidence through a sense of belonging, to affirm cultural identity and plurality, to renew its enthusiasm for self-reliance, to allow the community to be at one with itself in order to ensure smooth integration and play a greater role in the promotion of good community relations and the advancement of a multi-cultural society
